Connect To Your Server

> There are a few ways to connect to your server.

Enshrouded Server Menu:

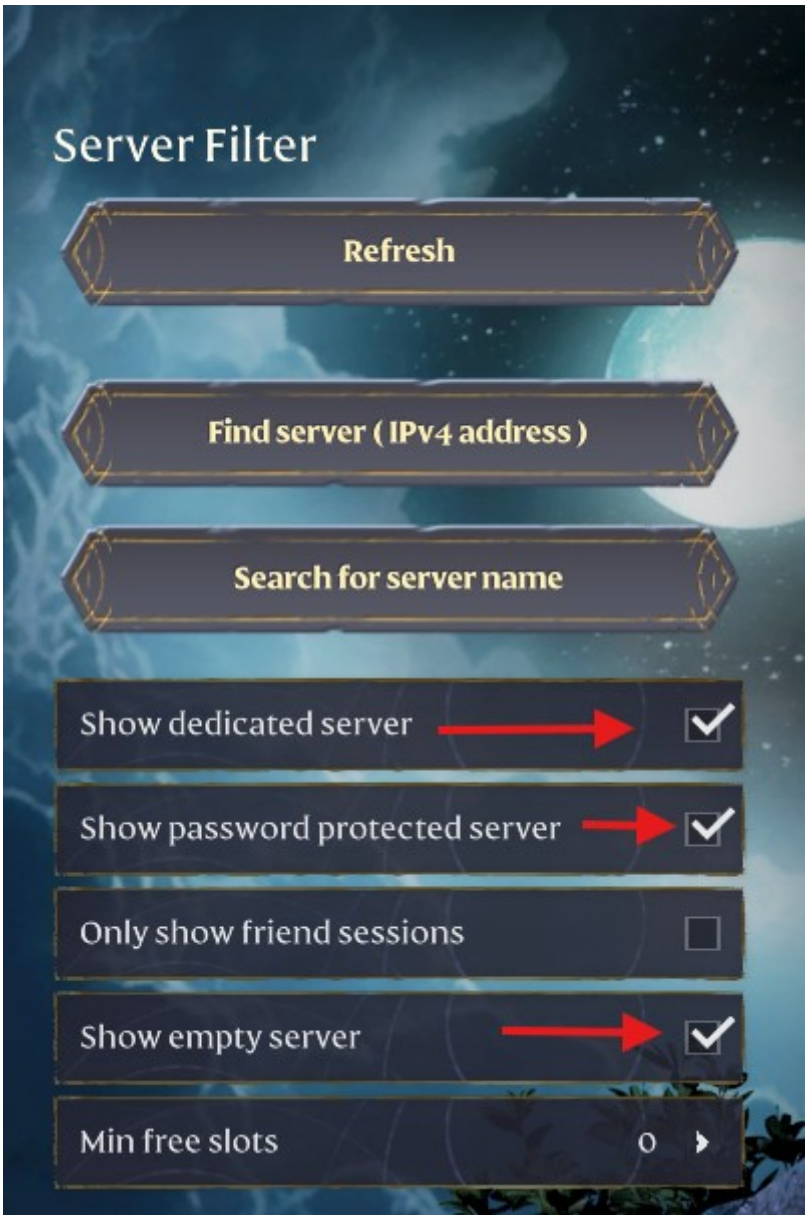

Open Enshrouded and click play:

Then Click Join:

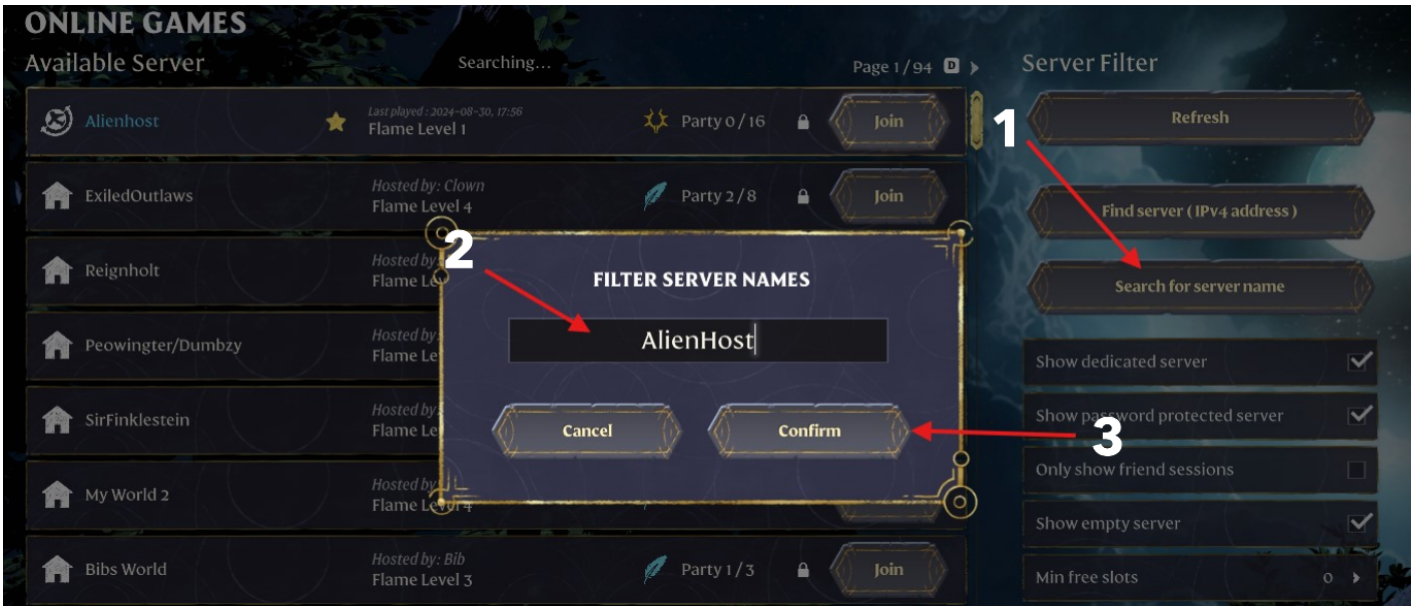

Make sure to tick the 3 boxes first, as this will help find your server.

Head to the (Search for server name) box, type in your server name and click confirm.

> Make sure to follow the Steps from 1 to 3 in the photo below.

You should now see your server now and be able to join it by clicking the (Join Button).

> If you have a certain password for your Admins, Members or Guests. Make sure they put in there correct passwords, so they can join with there correct roles. To check more about Roles click this link -> How To Create Roles

> If you can't find your server there may be a few reason for this.

> 1. Someone has connected to your server.
> This would mean the (Show Empty Server) Box will not show your server now. All you need to do is just tick the box to turn it off and click refresh. This should show your server now.

2. You have just turned your server on in the panel.
Sometimes, your server can take anywhere between 1 to 5 minutes to show on the Online Server Page. Just make sure to give it time and click refresh time to time.

3. You haven't followed the steps correctly.
Always make sure to follow every step as it will guide your through each process.

4. Make sure you have setup your server correctly.
Make sure you have setup all your settings correctly and check for any console errors.

If you think there is something wrong with these steps, do feel free to contact us on discord so we know and can fix it.

How to Favourite your server:

To favourite your server, just click the star icon as seen in the picture. Make sure it's turned yellow. You can also click F to Favourite it to, just make sure your server is highlighted for that.
